

URGE DRASTIC LAW TO BAR REPETITION OF CALLIERS CASE

United Action by City Officials
Follows Evening World
Disclosures.

Due to the disclosures brought out by The Evening World in the secret and hurried burial of Mrs. Anna Callies without the knowledge of her daughter, Dr. William H. Guilfooy, Registrar of Records of the Department of Health, to-day placed before Health Commissioner Copeland a recommendation for calling a conference of the District Attorney's office, the Department of Charities, the Public Administrator and the Chief Medical Examiner with a view to formulating new legislation to be enacted at Albany which would make impossible a recurrence of cases similar to the Callies case.

"At the present time the Department of Health," Dr. Guilfooy said, "has no control over undertakers. The matter is now before William T. Featherston, the departmental counsel, to ascertain whether we could issue permits to undertakers. Then if any irregularity by the undertaker occurred, the department could revoke the permit and bar the offender from practicing in the City of New York. At the present time undertakers are accountable only to the State Board of Examiners at Albany, in whose hands the facts in this case, brought out by The Evening World relative to the revoking of Undertaker George H. Kelly's license, are now resting."

The plan that Dr. Guilfooy will place before Commissioner Copeland to-day is for an immediate conference of the heads of the city departments, at which a bill will be prepared and sent to the Corporation Counsel for presentation at Albany, whereby the City Charter might be amended if necessary to create some bureau which would centralize responsibility in the disposing of bodies.

"A new system," Dr. Guilfooy said, "is imperative which would make a recurrence of the Callies case impossible and which would prevent undertakers from securing death certificates and bodies from the Morgue without proper authorization. It would also stop the underground wires between the various city departments and private institutions and the body chasing undertakers as revealed by The Evening World's investigation."

Following the arrests of John Kearney and Frank Connell, assistants to George H. Kelly of No. 337 Columbus Avenue (who buried the body of Mrs. Callies), on charges of falsifying the death certificate and Morgue permit, giving the name of R. J. Kelly, adjutant of the Terminal and Town Taxicab Company, as son-in-law and nearest relative, Mr. Featherston is to-day preparing the papers in the city's civil action which will be made against Undertaker Kelly through the Corporation Counsel's office.

Kearney and Connell were arrested on warrants issued by Chief Magistrate McAdoo. Connell will be arraigned before Magistrate Harris in the Municipal Term of the City Magistrates' Court on Monday. He is now under $500 bail set by Magistrate Tobias in the Night Court. Kearney yesterday waived examination before Magistrate Harris and was held on two charges in $500 bail each for Special Sessions.

The Additional Grand Jury yesterday refused to indict the chauffeur of the cab which killed Mrs. Callies on the evening of Oct. 9 at 81st Street and Broadway, despite the new evidence presented by Assistant District Attorney P. Francis Macro. The new witnesses voluntarily appeared, having read of the case in The Evening World, but were a bit hazy on points necessary to bring about an indictment.

FIRST U. S. SHIP SAILS FOR HAMBURG

Manchuria, With All-American
Crew, Carries Twenty Passengers,
Freight and Mail.

The Manchuria, an American steamer of the American Line, with an American crew and captain, an American cargo and the majority of her twenty passengers American, sailed at 9:20 o'clock this morning for Hamburg and Antwerp, the first ship of any sort to clear from the United States for a German port since early in 1915.

Part of the Manchuria's passengers are destined for Germany and the remainder for Belgium. No passengers will be carried on the return trip from Germany because of the failure to conclude the peace treaty. There was evidence of joy among those on board to-day when they learned that the bar would be opened as soon as the vessel passed the three-mile limit. The vessel carries 12,000 tons of freight—copper, wheat and case oil—and 15,000 packages of parcel post mail, mostly Xmas presents for Germans. The Manchuria will follow the American Line plans a two-week schedule between here and Hamburg after that. John J. McGlone, assistant to President P. A. S. Franklin of the International Mercantile Marine, sailed on the Manchuria to open offices for the American Line in Hamburg.

HINTS AT JUGGLE IN TEACHERS' PAY

Craig Believes Money Was Spent
"Elsewhere"—No Christmas Shopping Cash.

Dr. William L. Ettinger, Superintendent of Schools, explained to-day at the offices of the Board of Education why the teachers have not received one-half of the December pay in time to do some Christmas shopping.

"The suggestion was made this year, although it has not been the custom," said Ettinger, "to split the December pay in two and pay half of it soon after the middle of the month, but the Board found the plan would be confusing, impracticable and quite impossible. We were therefore compelled to abandon it."

It had been reported generally throughout the department that "shopping" money would be available. The change in plans has caused widespread disappointment.

When Commissioner George Ryan of the Board of Education appeared yesterday before the Board of Estimate to ask for $618,928.56 additional funds to be charged against the general school fund Comptroller Craig said:

"If you want to give your teachers Christmas money you had better get right up to Park Avenue and 59th street and see what has become of the money. I think somebody has taken it from the teachers' fund and spent it somewhere else."

Shakespeare's "Seven ages of man" pay tribute to Horlick's Malted Milk

From across every sea and land have come thousands of grateful letters to the Horlick offices, paying tribute to Horlick's Malted Milk. Mothers of contented babies, soldiers after a campaign, explorers back from the ice fields, high tension business and professional workers, invalids and the aged—all tell of the different needs that Horlick's has filled.

Horlick's has proved itself to be the ideal food for every age of Shakespeare's Seven. It is so complete in itself as to contain every element of nutrition necessary to sustain life—even of the most robust—and yet it is readily digestible by the delicate stomach of the infant and the invalid.

In these interesting extracts from letters to us the story is told:

1st Age. "First the infant in the nurse's arms"

"Words fail to express how grateful I am to Horlick's Malted Milk. My babe was given up; it was said she would not live through the night. But the next morning it still lived, and while we anxiously watched it, a neighbor persuaded us to try 'Horlick's.' It was like putting oil on the wick of a dying lamp; she improved rapidly, and is now the joy of the house."

3d Age. "Then the soldier seeking reputation at the cannon's mouth"

"Clara Barton of the Red Cross in her stories of the Spanish-American War tells how Colonel Roosevelt asked the Red Cross to sell him some supplies for some sick men in his regiment, but she declined. 'We cannot sell them, but you can have them for asking.' 'Oh, then I do ask for them.' 'All right, what is on your list?' The list was Horlick's Malted Milk, etc. Colonel Roosevelt along the heavy sack over his shoulder, and trudged off through the jungle."

2d Age. "Then the school boy with his shining morning face"

"I raised five children on 'Horlick's,' and they all love it still. It can't be beat as a nutritious lunch between meals for a growing boy or girl."

5th Age. "And then the justice full of wise saws"

"When I need an invigorator as the result of my work I drink a cup of 'Horlick's.' I have used it constantly for several years, and find it cannot be beat for weak stomach, as a diet. In fact, it is all that is claimed for it."

ROUND PACKAGE
In use for over 1/2 century

4th Age. "And then the lover with his ballad"

"Horlick's growth as a fountain favorite has been marvelous. A constant stream of young couples in the afternoon and evening call for Horlick's Malted Milk, chocolate or plain. 'Horlick's' is a favorite lunch hour drink around universities with the students. A glass making a meal, they find it very economical and healthful."

6th Age. "The sixth age with spectacles on nose"

"I am 80 years old, and consider it a fortunate day when a friend induced me to try a cup of Horlick's Malted Milk. I use it with benefit and pleasure two or three times a day. It is delicious and has done me a world of good."

7th Age. "Last scene of all that ends this eventful history"

"I could not do without it. It surely is a sleep producer and I am a nervous person, but Horlick's Malted Milk has helped me greatly. I have learned by experience that 'Horlick's' is so excellent for well people as for invalids."
